CENTRAL BOARD OF EXCISE AND CUSTOMSCUSTOMSNew Delhi, the 2nd October 1965*

G.S.R. 1450.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 146 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Board of Excise and Customs hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called the Custom House Agents Licensing Regulations, 1965.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) “Act” means the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962);

(b) “Company” means a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956);

(c) “Custom House Agent” means a person licensed under these regulations to act as agent for the transaction of any business relating to the entrance or clearance of any vessel or the import or export of goods or baggage in any Custom House;

(d) “Form” means a Form appended to these regulations;

(e) “Income-tax Clearance certificate” has the meaning assigned to it in the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961);

(f) “section” means a section of the Act.

3. Licence where, not required.—No licence under these regulations shall be required by—

(a) an importer or exporter transacting any business in the Custom House solely on his own account;

(b) any clerk or servant of any person or mercantile firm transacting business generally on behalf of such person or firm; and

(c) an agent employed for one or more vessels or shipping lines in order solely to enter or clear vessels for which he is appointed as an agent, for work incidental to his employment as such agent including the clearance of unmanifested excess cargo, unclaimed baggage and the like.

4. Invitation of applications.—The Assistant Collector of Customs may, as and when he considers necessary, invite, by means of a notice affixed on the notice board of the Custom House, applications for the grant of licences to act as Custom House Agent.

5. Application for licence.—An application for a licence to act as a Custom House Agent shall be made in Form ‘A’ and shall contain the name or names and the address or addresses of the person or persons applying; if the applicant is a firm, the name and address of every partner of the firm; and if a company, the registered name and address thereof, the names of the directors, managers and managing agents, and if there is a managing director, the name of such director. If the applicant is a firm or a company, the application shall also specify the name or names of the person or persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company, as the case may be.

6. Certain conditions to be fulfilled by the applicant before the grant of licence.—An application for a licence shall—

(a) furnish to the Assistant Collector of Customs satisfactory evidence as to his respectability, reliability and financial status;

(b) produce satisfactory evidence to the Assistant Collector of Customs that he would be in a position to muster sufficient clientele and business in the event of his being granted the licence;

(c) furnish an income-tax clearance certificate.

7. Scrutiny of application for licence.—On receipt of an application made under regulation 5, the Assistant Collector of Customs may make enquiries for verification of the particulars set out in the application and also such other enquiries as he may deem necessary including enquiries about the respectability, reliability and financial status of the applicant.

8. Number of licences.—The number of licences to be granted at a Custom House shall be such as the Assistant Collector of Customs, having regard to the volume of import and export business transacted through the Custom House, may determine from time to time.

9. Examination of applicant.—(1) On being otherwise satisfied as to the fitness of an applicant for holding a licence under these regulations, the Assistant Collector of Customs may arrange for him or, in the case of a firm or company, for the person or persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of the firm or company, as the case may be, to be examined with a view to ascertaining his or their knowledge of customs law and procedure and his or their fitness to render proper service to importers and exporters. The examination may be oral or written or both, and shall be conducted by the Assistant Collector of Customs or by a Committee of officers of Customs to be appointed by him for the purpose.

(2) The examination may include questions on the following subjects:—

- (a) arrival, entry and clearance of vessels;
- (b) preparation of Various kinds of bill's of entry and shipping bills;
- (c) tariff classification and rates of duty;
- (d) determination of value for assessment;
- (e) conversion of currency;
- (f) nature and description of documents to be filed with various kinds of bills of entry and shipping bills;
- (g) procedure for assessment and payment of duty;
- (h) examination of merchandise at the docks;
- (i) provisions of the Trade and Merchandise Marks Act, 1958 (43 of 1958);
- (j) prohibitions on import and export;
- (k) bonding procedure and clearance from bond;
- (l) reimportation and conditions for free re-entry;
- (m) drawback;
- (n) offences under the Act;
- (o) provisions of allied Acts, including the Imports and Exports (Control) Act, 1947 (18 of 1947), Destructive Insects and Pests Act, 1914 (2 of 1914), Arms Act, 1959 (54 of 1959), Opium Act, 1878 (1 of 1878), Indian Drugs Act, 1940 (23 of 1940), and Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 (2 of 1930), in so far as they are relevant to the transaction of customs business;
- (p) procedure in the matter of refund of claims, appeals and revision petitions under the Act.

(3) The Assistant Collector of Customs shall also satisfy himself whether the applicant, if he is an individual possessor; or in the case of a firm or company, the persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the customs House on behalf of that firm or company possess, satisfactory knowledge of English and the local language, provided that in the case of persons detailed to work exclusively in the docks satisfactory knowledge of English will not be compulsory. Knowledge of Hindi will be considered as an additional or desirable qualification.

10. Rejection of applications.—The Assistant Collector of customs shall reject an application for the grant of a licence to act as Customs House Agent, if—

- (a) the applicant, if he is an individual, fails to pass the examination prescribed under these regulations for the grant of a licence; in the case of a firm or company, the persons who will be actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company, as the case may be, fail to pass the examination, prescribed under these regulations for the grant of a licence; or

(b) the vacancies existing at the time the application is considered for the grant of a licence do not justify the grant of such licence to the applicant; or

(c) the applicant is not considered suitable due to any other reason to be stated in writing.

11. Grant of a licence.—Where an application of an applicant is not rejected under regulation 10, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall grant the applicant a licence in Form 'B' on payment of a fee of Rs. 50.

12. Applicant to execute bond and furnish security and surety.—Before granting a licence under these regulations, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall require the applicant to enter into a bond in Form 'C' for the due observance of these regulations and the conditions of his licence and also to furnish—

(a) a security of Rs. 3,000 in cash or an interest bearing security of the like amount namely, Government promissory notes, National Savings certificates, Post Office Savings Bank Pass Book or Post Office Cash Certificates; and

(b) a solvent surety for a sum of Rs. 2,000 who shall execute a bond in Form 'D':

Provided that the amount of security may be increased or decreased by the Assistant Collector of Customs at any time, should he consider it necessary to do so, having regard to the volume and type of business which the applicant will transact as Custom House Agent:

Provided further that an applicant may, at his option, furnish in lieu of a surety of equivalent amount, a further security of the nature described in clause (a).

13. Period of validity of licence.—(1) A licence granted under regulation 11 shall be valid for a period of one year.

(2) Where a licence has been granted under regulation 11, the Assistant Collector of Customs may, notwithstanding anything in sub-regulation (6), on an application made to him in this behalf before the expiry of that licence, extend the period for a further period not exceeding one year.

(3) A licence granted under regulation 11 may, on an application made in this behalf before the expiry of the period of one year referred to in sub-regulation (1) or the extended period, if any, under sub-regulation (2), be renewed for a period of three years and thereafter every three years.

(4) The fee for renewal of a licence granted under these regulations shall be Rs. 5.

(5) Before a licence is renewed, the Assistant Collector of Customs shall satisfy himself about the financial solvency of the applicant and shall require the production of an income-tax clearance certificate.

(6) The Assistant Collector of Customs may refuse to renew a licence if on such inquiry as he deems fit he finds that the volume of the business/transacted by the applicant as Customs House Agent during the period to which that licence relates is less than the minimum prescribed by the Assistant Collector of Customs in this behalf.

14. Grant of a temporary licence.—Notwithstanding anything contained in regulation 8, clause (b) of regulation 10 and regulation 11, the Collector of Customs may, if the applicant is found suitable in all respects, grant him on payment of a fee not exceeding Rs. 20 a temporary licence for a specified period and subject to the condition that he shall act as a Custom House Agent only in respect of such consignment or set or series of consignments of goods as may be specified in the licence.

15. Licence not transferable.—Every licence granted or renewed under these regulations shall be deemed to have been granted or renewed personally to the licensee and no licence shall be sold or otherwise transferred.

16. Obligations of Custom House Agent.—A custom House Agent shall—

- (a) furnish, whenever required by the Assistant Collector of Customs, an authorisation from each of the firms or persons by whom he is, from time to time, employed as their Custom House Agent to act as such Custom House Agent;
- (b) transact business in the Custom House either personally or through a clerk or servant duly approved by the Assistant Collector of Customs;
- (c) not represent a client before an officer of Customs in any matter to which he, as officer or employee, gave personal consideration, or as to the facts of which he gained knowledge, while in Government service;
- (d) where he knows that a client has not complied with the law or has made any error in, or omission from, any document, affidavit or other papers which the law requires such client to execute, advise his client promptly of the fact of such non-compliance, error or omission, and should his client still persist in such non-compliance, error or omission, immediately bring the matter to the notice of the Assistant Collector of Customs;
- (e) exercise due diligence to ascertain the correctness of any information which he imparts to a client with reference to any Customs business;
- (f) not withhold information relative to any Customs business from a client who is entitled to such information;
- (g) promptly pay over to Government when due all sums received for the payment of any duty, tax, or other debt or obligation owing to the Government, and promptly account to his clients for funds received for them from the Government, or received from them in excess of Governmental or other charges properly payable in respect of the client's Customs business;
- (h) not procure, or attempt to procure, directly or indirectly, information from Government records or other Government sources of any kind to which access is not granted by proper authority;
- (i) not attempt to influence the conduct of any official of the Custom House in any matter pending before the Custom House, by the use of threat, false accusation, duress, or the offer of any special inducement or promise of advantage, or by the bestowing of any gift or favour or other thing of value;
- (j) not refuse access to, conceal, remove or destroy the whole or any part of any book, paper or other record, relating to his transactions as a Custom House Agent which is being sought, or, which he has reasonable grounds to believe, may be sought by the Custom House;
- (k) maintain accounts in such form and manner as may be directed from time to time by the Assistant Collector of Customs and submit them for inspection to the Assistant Collector of Customs or an officer authorised by him;
- (l) ensure that all documents prepared or presented by him or on his behalf are strictly in accordance with orders relating thereto;
- (m) ensure that all documents such as bills of entry and shipping bills delivered in the Custom House by him show the name of the importer or exporter, as the case may be, and the name of the Customs House Agent, prominently at the top of the documents;
- (n) in the event of the licence granted to him being lost, immediately report the fact to the Assistant Collector of Customs;
- (o) ensure that he discharges his duties as agent with utmost speed and efficiency and without avoidable delay.

17. Change in directors of company etc.—In the case of a company holding a licence under these regulations, any change in the directors, managing director or managing agents as the case may be, shall be forthwith communicated by the company to the Assistant Collector of Customs.

18. Change in constitution of firm.—In the case of any firm being a licensee, any change or proposed change in the constitution thereof shall be reported to the Assistant Collector of Customs as early as possible and in any event within a period of three days of the change having taken place. The firm undergoing any such change shall make a fresh application for the grant of licence under regulation 5 and such application shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions laid down in regulations 6 to 13. The Assistant Collector of Customs may, however, in his discretion, allow the existing firm to carry on business of Custom House Agents till such time as a decision is taken on the fresh application of the firm.

19. Change in the constitution of a concern.—Where a licence granted or renewed under these regulations in favour of a concern other than a firm or a company ceases to be in force by reason of a change in the constitution thereof, the new concern may, pending the grant of a fresh licence in accordance with these regulations, be permitted to act as Custom House Agent if the previous approval of the Assistant Collector of Customs has been obtained for effecting the change in the constitution of the first-mentioned concern.

20. Change in personnel actually engaged in Custom House on behalf of firm or company.—Any change in the personnel actually engaged in the work in the Custom House on behalf of that firm or company shall be communicated forthwith by the firm or the company, as the case may be, to the Assistant Collector of Customs, and no new person shall be allowed to work in the Custom House unless he has passed the examination referred to in regulation 9.

21. Maintenance and inspection of accounts.—(1) A licensee required to maintain accounts under these regulations shall maintain in an orderly and itemised manner the said accounts. The accounts shall be kept current and they shall reflect all financial transactions of the Custom House Agent as such. The licensee shall keep and maintain on file a copy of each of the Customs documents such as bill of entry, shipping bill, transshipment application and the like delivered by him and copies of all his correspondence and other papers relating to his customs business.

(2) All such books and papers shall be kept on file for at least five years and shall be made available at any time for inspection of officers authorised to inspect them under these regulations.

22. Loss of licence grant of duplicate.—In the event of the licence granted to a Custom House Agent having been lost, a duplicate licence should be granted on application being made in this behalf, on payment of a fee of Re. 1.

23. Employment of clerk or agent.—(1) A Custom House Agent may, having regard to the volume of business transacted by him as such, employ one or more clerks or servants to transact business generally at the Custom House on his behalf.

(2) Every appointment of a person as a Clerk or a servant under this regulation shall be made only after obtaining the approval of the Assistant Collector of Customs and in the matter of granting approval the Assistant Collector of Customs shall take into consideration the antecedents and any other information pertaining to the character of the person to be so appointed.

(3) Every appointment of a person as a clerk or a servant under this regulation shall be subject to the condition that he shall, within six months from the date of his appointment, pass an examination conducted by the Assistant Collector of Customs or by a committee of officers of Customs to be appointed by him for the purpose, and the examination shall be such as to ascertain the adequacy of knowledge of such person regarding Customs Law and procedure:

Provided that where any such person fails to pass the examination within the said period, the Assistant Collector of Customs may, by order in writing, permit such person to appear again for the examination, but no such order shall be made in favour of a person who had been given the opportunity to appear for the examination four times.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, a clerk or a servant who has worked under a Custom House Agent and passed the examination aforesaid may, on his appointment under any other Custom House Agent with the approval of the Assistant Collector of Customs, be exempted by such authority from passing the examination again.

(5) Where the Custom House Agent has authorised any clerk or servant employed by him to sign Customs documents on his behalf, the Custom House Agent shall file with the Assistant Collector of Customs, a written authority in this behalf and give prompt notice in writing, if such authorisation is modified or withdrawn.

(6) The Assistant Collector of Customs shall issue an identity card to every clerk or servant of a Custom House Agent—

(i) in Form E, in case he has passed such examination,

(ii) In Form F, in case he has not passed the examination aforesaid, and every such clerk or servant shall, at all times when he transacts the work at the Custom House, carry such card with him and produce it for inspection on demand by any officer of the Custom House.

(7) The Custom House Agent shall exercise such supervision as may be necessary to ensure the proper conduct of any such clerk or servant in the transaction of Custom House business and the Agent shall be held responsible for all acts or omissions of his employees in regard to their employment.

24. Cancellation of licence appeal.—The Collector of Customs may, subject to the provisions of regulation 25, suspend, or revoke the licence of a Custom House Agent on any of the following grounds:—

(i) failure of the Custom House Agent to comply with any of the conditions of the bond executed by him under these regulations;

(ii) failure of the Custom House Agent to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations;

(iii) misconduct on his part which in the opinion of the Collector of Customs renders him unfit to transact any business in the Custom House;

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), the Collector of Customs may, in appropriate cases where immediate action is considered necessary suspend the licence of a Custom House Agent where an inquiry against such agent is pending or is under contemplation.

(3) Where a licence has been suspended under sub-regulation (2), the inquiry under sub-regulation (1) shall be commenced within ninety days from the date of issue of the order of suspension of the licence:

Provided that where an appeal is filed under the provisions of sub-regulation (4) the period between the date of filing and the date of disposal of such appeal shall be excluded in computing the said period of ninety days.

(4) An appeal against every order of suspension or revocation of a licence shall lie to the Central Board of Excise and Customs. Every such appeal shall be made within ninety days of the date of the order of the suspension or revocation. Against the decision of the Central Board of Excise and Customs on such appeal, a second appeal shall lie to the Central Government; such an appeal shall be preferred within one hundred and eighty days from the date of the order in appeal.

(5) The security deposit falling due to the Custom House Agent as a result of revocation of the licence as aforesaid shall not become payable until after a year from the date of such revocation.

25. Procedure for suspending or revoking licence under regulation 24.—(1) The Collector of Customs shall issue a notice in writing to the Custom House Agent stating the grounds on which it is proposed to suspend or revoke his licence and requiring the said agent to submit, within such time as may be specified in the notice, to the Assistant Collector of Customs nominated by the Collector of Customs, a written statement of defence and also to specify in the said statement whether the Customs House Agent desires to be heard in person by the Assistant Collector of Customs.

(2) On receipt of the written statement from the Custom House Agent, or, where no such statement has been received within the time limit specified in the notice referred to in sub-regulation (1), the Assistant Collector of Customs may inquire into such of the grounds as are not admitted.

(3) The Assistant Collector of Customs shall, in the course of inquiry, consider such documentary evidence and take such oral evidence as may be relevant or material to the inquiry in regard to the grounds forming the basis of the proceedings and he may also put any question to any person tendering evidence, for or against the Custom House Agent, for the purpose of ascertaining the correct position.

(4) The Custom House Agent shall be entitled to cross-examine the persons examined in support of the grounds forming the basis of the proceedings and where the Assistant Collector of Customs declines to examine any person on the ground that his evidence is not relevant or material, he shall record his reasons in writing for so doing.

(5) At the conclusion of the aforesaid inquiry the Assistant Collector of Customs shall prepare a report of the inquiry recording his findings.

(6) The Collector of Customs shall furnish to the Custom House Agent a copy of the report of the Assistant Collector of Customs and shall require the Custom House Agent to submit within the specified period any representation that he may wish to make against the findings of the Assistant Collector of Customs.

(7) The Collector of Customs shall, after considering the report of the inquiry, and the representation thereon, if any, made by the Custom House Agent, pass such orders as he deems fit.

26. Grant of licence no right to accommodation.—The grant of a licence under these regulations does not confer any right to accommodation in the Custom House.

27. Special provision for existing agents.—(1) In the case of any clearing agent, Dalal, Muccadam or Broker who immediately before the commencement of these regulations was working as an agent for the transaction of business in any Custom House, on behalf of clients generally, the Assistant Collector of Customs may, notwithstanding anything contained in these regulations, grant a special temporary licence in Form 'G' on payment of Rs. 10/- to act as a Custom House Agent:

Provided that the Assistant Collector of Customs is satisfied—

(i) that the application of the provisions of these regulations relating to the grant of a licence and in particular regulations 9 and 10, will result in undue hardship to any such person; and

(ii) that any such person is otherwise generally suitable to function as a Custom House Agent.

(2) In issuing such a licence to a Clearing Agent, Dalal or Muccadam, the Assistant Collector of Customs may restrict the functions to be performed by the licensee to those performed before the commencement of these regulations by such Clearing Agent, Dalal or Muccadam, as the case may be.

(3) The special temporary licence granted under this regulation shall be valid for a period of one year but subject to the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (4), may be renewed from year to year on payment of a fee of Rs. 5/-.

(4) No licence shall be granted under this regulation after the expiry of one year from the commencement of these regulations.

(5) Save as otherwise provided in this regulation, the provisions of these regulations shall apply in relation to persons granted special temporary licences under this regulation as they apply in relation to persons granted licences under regulation 11:

Provided that the Central Board of Excise and Customs may, if it is satisfied that a strict application of all or any of those provisions will result in hardship, direct that the said provisions shall apply to any person or class of persons to whom licences have been granted under this regulation subject to such restrictions and modifications as may be specified by it.

28. Appeals.—(1) An appeal shall lie to the Central Board of Excise and Customs against an order of the Assistant Collector of Customs in the following cases:—

- (i) rejecting an application for grant of licence under clause (c) of regulation 10.
- (ii) rejecting an application for the renewal of a licence granted under these regulations:
- (iii) rejecting a fresh application made in accordance with regulation 18;
- (iv) refusing the grant or renewal of a special temporary licence under regulation 27.

(2) Every such appeal shall be made within ninety days of the date of the order.

(3) Save as otherwise provided in these regulations, no appeal shall lie from the order of the Assistant Collector of Customs rejecting an application for the grant or renewal of a licence under these regulations.

29. Repeal.—(1) As from the commencement of these Regulations, the Custom House Agents Licensing Rules, 1960, shall cease to have effect.

(2) Notwithstanding such cesser of operation, anything done or any action taken under the said Custom House Agents Licensing Rules, 1960, shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these Regulations.
